

67-5a-2 Terms -- Filling vacancies -- Chair.

- (1) The term of each council member is four years, unless the term is earlier terminated by:
 - (a) the authority that designated the member; or
 - (b) the member ceasing to hold the office that qualified him for membership.
- (2) A member whose term has expired may continue, for not more than four months, to serve as a council member until a successor is selected and qualified.
- (3) Council members may serve for more than one successive term.
- (4) When a vacancy occurs in the membership for any reason, the replacement shall be appointed for a full term that commences on the date of appointment.
- (5) The council shall elect by a majority vote one of its members as chair at its first meeting and then annually.
